

List of Figures

- Figure 1. The Ecoregions (with Land Type Associations) of Massachusetts
- Figure 2. Location of the Berkshire Ecoregions (with Land Type Associations) in western Massachusetts
- Figure 3. Topography of the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 4. Communities in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 5. Counties in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 6. Major river basins in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 7. Landuse in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 8. Permanently and temporarily protected open space in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 9. BioMap core and supporting natural landscape areas in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 10. "Living Waters" Core Habitat and Critical Supporting Watershed areas in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 11. Estimated habitat occurrences of rare wetland wildlife species in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 12. Bird population trends in Southern New England
- Figure 13. Moose records for Massachusetts
- Figure 14. Potential and certified vernal pools in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 15. Age class distribution of forestland in the Berkshire Ecoregions and statewide, 1999
- Figure 16. Locations of fisheries assessments in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 17. Roads, rail lines and transmission lines in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 18. Buffered and Unfragmented "Forests" and "Natural Features" in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 19. 1830 Forest within the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 20. Growing stock volumes by diameter class for selected species in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 21. Hardwoods and softwoods as percentages of live trees in the Berkshire Ecoregions and statewide
- Figure 22. Public water supplies in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 23. Outstanding Resource Water (ORW) areas in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 24. High and medium-yield aquifers in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 25. Surficial geology of the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 26. Surficial hydrology of the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 27. Population estimates for Berkshire Ecoregions communities
- Figure 28. Population change in Berkshire communities, 1980-2000
- Figure 29. Increases in developed land in Berkshire communities, 1971-1999
- Figure 30. Potential population growth in Berkshire communities
- Figure 31. Locations of Division of State Parks & Recreation properties in Berkshire Ecoregions
- Figure 32. Locations of Division of Fisheries and Wildlife properties in the Berkshire Ecoregions

List of Tables

- Table 1. Information on Massachusetts Ecoregions
- Table 2. Ecoregion Classification: a. Province, b. Landform, c. Elevation, d. Climate
- Table 3. Forest Cover in the Berkshire Ecoregions, 1885 and 1999
- Table 4. Landuse (4 Class Groups) in Berkshire Ecoregions, 1985 – 1999
- Table 5. Protected Open Space in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Table 6. State Land Conservation Plan
- Table 7. Infrastructure (Transmission Lines, Rail Lines, and Roads) as of February 28, 2005
- Table 8. 1830 Forest (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 9. Timberland area by forest-type group and size class, (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 10. Forest damage agents in the Berkshire Ecoregions, 1990-1997
- Table 11. Public Water Supplies as of February 28, 2005
- Table 12. Outstanding Resource Waters as of February 28, 2005
- Table 13. High & Medium Aquifers as of February 28, 2005
- Table 14. Surficial Geology as of February 28, 2005
- Table 15. Hydrography (USGS 1:100,000) as of February 28, 2005
- Table 16. Imperviousness estimates in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Table 17. Population data for the communities in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Table 18. Percent change in developed land in the communities of the Berkshire Ecoregions, 1971-1999
- Table 19. Publicly owned forest land in the Berkshire Ecoregions
- Table 20. Sawmills & Kilns by Community (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 21. Number of Sawmills and Production Statewide
- Table 22. Licensed timber harvesters by community (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 23. Number of licensed private consulting foresters by community (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 24. Maple sugar producers by community (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 25. Christmas tree growers by community (Berkshire Ecoregions)
- Table 26. Pre-historic archeological sites (Berkshire Ecoregions)